

POSITION AVAILABLE –Rutherford County has a full time Code Enforcement Officer position available. Position reports to the Director of Building Inspections. Duties involve working with contractors, developers, engineers, and property owners to inspect new and remodeled buildings both residential and commercial for compliance with Building, Electrical, Plumbing and Mechanical Codes. Also provides support and interpretation of state codes, meets with property owners, assists with office responsibilities related to permit issuance and examination of building plans and construction documents for compliance with the NC State Building Codes. Job requires working in confined spaces, on roof tops, and in attics. Minimum requirements: High School diploma, experience and/or special training in residential/commercial building, electrical, mechanical or plumbing fields or equivalent combination of education and experience. Must have valid driver license, clean driving record. Minimum salary $37,959 negotiable depending upon education, certifications and experience plus benefits. Hours: Mon through Friday 8:00 – 4:30, may involve evening meetings or presentations. Apply Rutherford County Human Resources, 289 N. Main Street, Rutherfordton or www.rutherfordcountync.gov. Drug testing required. Position open until filled. EEO.